How does ReaDI-Watch Help with DTIF?

Concerned about a strong application? The timesheets, technical reporting, and diligence needed to draw-down funds? The focus needed to make sure the consortium has enough energy and velocity to drive forward?

If you read below, you'll see our R&D and Innovation intensive customers have won significant funding as part of our collaboration with them.

ReaDI-Watch helps companies to win and manage their DTIF-funded programme by:

- Creating visibility on the investments that are being made into technology development in the business, by implementing a real-time culture of data capture. ReaDI-Watch turns the retrospective gathering of information to claim R&D Tax Credits and Grant supports, into a seamless real-time process, solving significant headaches, cost and risk challenges. We also use this to cover the time & cost of building a lean & effective RD&I function into your company.
- By creating visibility of the investments being made into technology development, and by maximizing the non-dilutive funding support available, ReaDI-Watch's customers can optimize their decision-making & strategic planning to nurture concepts to commercial success. By bringing the business pillar of RD&I to light, ReaDI-Watch customers achieve higher valuations and stronger due diligence for investments or acquisitions.
- By creating clarity on the technology development programme taking place in the business, ReaDI-Watch customers can better protect & exploit their intellectual property (from know-how to patents). ReaDI-Watch serves as a digital platform for all engaged in innovation and R&D in the business to contribute to ideation, development & commercialization

For the DTIF programme, we have built up special expertise in ensuring a well-managed, compliant and seamless DTIF project for our customers.
