MedTech Rising 2025

MedTech Rising is one of Ireland's leading annual gatherings for medtech companies, investors, industry professionals and partners. The conference brings together leaders from across the sector to explore developments in medical technology, manufacturing, innovation, skills and global market trends.

Hosted by the Irish Medtech Association (Ibec), Enterprise Ireland and IDA Ireland, the event offers a full day of keynote sessions, panel discussions and networking opportunities with senior figures from across the industry.

ReaDI-Watch attends MedTech Rising 2025

Our team will attend MedTech Rising 2025 on Thursday, 4 December, to learn from sector experts, connect with delegates and gain insights that support our work on research and innovation system development. Attending events like MedTech Rising helps inform our understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing medtech organisations as they build stronger innovation capability.

The conference features a strong speaker lineup, including senior leaders from Aerogen Ireland, EY, Ibec, Irish Medtech, Alcon Ireland, Dexcom, Atlantic Bridge, Teleflex, Stragilon, HealthBeacon, Trinzo, Integer, Stryker, Boston Scientific, Enterprise Ireland, IDA Ireland and others shaping the future of the sector.

More information about the event is available at: Irish Medtech Business Leaders' Conference - Medtech Rising.
